Lary 7

Detritus

January 3 – January 31, 2018

Disintegration, product of decay after an event, leftover from what came before, stuff left behind, shit that no one wants. It could be anything – biology, geology, material, debris, junk, dust, rubble, rubbish, scrap, trash, remains of something destroyed or broken up – abandoned and forgotten.

For more than three decades, sound artist, photographer and filmmaker Lary 7's decidedly eclectic work had taken many forms – from music to visual art to performance and beyond. He is fascinated with arcane machinery, mechanical and analogue, and recycling and reconfiguring scavenged and defunct equipment into something inspired and new.
